NOVEMBER 2008

GUILD NEWS

From the President

Thanks to Becky Stevens for opening her home for the December holiday meeting/party. Becky lives at the south edge of Belton in a scenic country setting that will be a beautiful site for the holiday festivities. Her sheep and long-haired goat will add nicely to the festive atmosphere.

The hospitality chairperson position is available for 2009 and can be co-chaired by 2 people, if you chose. It is one of those important jobs in the guild that provides the ambiance for good visiting and good information exchange following the show and tell portion of the meeting. It is not just the food that is key. However, our caffeine titers have plummeted and our blood sugars have dwindled by break time during the meeting that the treats are a real welcome to keep us revved. Contact me if you have any questions about the position.

Remember to bring your donations to the November meeting for the children at the Crittenden Center and for the senior citizens at the KU Center for Aging.

November Program

In November, Carol Ann Parker will demonstrate manipulation of fabric to produce texture. In December we will have a holiday party and a gift exchange - Please remember the gift exchange this year is A RECTANGLE Make it useful, make it ornamental, make it large, make it small... this will be fun to give and to receive!

COLOR NEEDED AT THE NOVEMBER

MEETING. All of you lucky people who got to take the cool weaving workshop in October on iridescence in weaving, bring in your samples for the rest of us to see. We need some color in our lives. Thanks.

November Treats

This month Betty Haerberle and Michael Knotts will provide treats for the November meeting. In December we will have a pot luck at the holiday party.

Creative Hand

The Creative Hand show will be November 21 and 22, 2008 at the Sylvester Powell Community Center in Mission, KS. This is a group cooperative show and sale for current members of the Fiber Guild and Weaver's Guild of Kansas City. We have 38 applications in hand at last count and some more coming in! With so many new artists, we are excited about the new products and increased quantities we are expecting for this year's show.

Please contact Sandy Cahill if you have any questions.
