

Weaver's Guild of Greater Kansas City
Business Meeting and Program, June 10, 2021

Janet Meddings called the meeting to order at 10:02 AM

Meeting was held at Westwood City Hall with the program portion also presented via Zoom.

Two new members and one guest were introduced.

Janet asked if members still wish to have treats at the meetings. By a show of hands, it was decided that we will continue serving treats. There is a link on the Guild webpage to sign up to bring treats.

Janet read a thank you card from reStart for the donations of towels, blankets, washcloths and provisions for sack lunches.

Mentor Program

The Guild needs someone to coordinate the mentorship program. Jacqueline Jacobson volunteered to serve in this role.

KAWS - Cindy Lessenden

- KAWS is scheduled for November 5-8, 2021. They are still in need of speakers and vendors.
- Cindy asked if we would like to participate in providing something for the vendor bag. Linda Stoker moved that we participate. The motion was seconded. With a show of hands, the motion passed.
- Lolly Buxton moved that we spend upwards to $300, Karen Neal seconded the motion. By a show of hands the motion passed.
- After discussion of several items, it was moved that we purchase retractable rulers with our imprinted with our logo. Margaret Smith-Wisker seconded the motion. By a show of hands, the motion carried.

Workshops -- Cindy Smith

- The June Deflected Double Weave workshop scheduled has been filled. Because of high interest, it will be repeated in September.
- The Nelson-Atkins Museum contacted Cindy regarding an upcoming exhibit on Asian Weaving opening in September. They are in need of some demonstrators. If you have an Asian themed idea, contact Cindy so that she can share it with the Nelson.
- Pauline Verbeek-Cowart at the Art Institute informed Cindy that they have two AVL looms for sale.

Creative Hand -- Sandy Cahill

- Vendor application deadline is August 31st.
- Creative Hand will be held Nov 19-20 at Old Shawnee Town.

Debbie Buddish gave a brief reminder as to how to check out books and magazines from the Guild library.

Janet Meddings reminded us to clean up after ourselves. We need to leave the room as we found it.
