

Weaver's Guild of Greater Kansas City
Business Meeting and Program, July 14, 2022

Janet Meddings called the meeting to order at 10:02 AM.

Meeting was held at the Westwood City Hall.

Treasurer's Report – Kate Webb

Operating Cash	$12,687.58
Scholarship Fund	3,358.76
Gross Operating Cash	$16,046.34

Guests

Sylvia Crawford

Newsletter - Ellen Kardell

Ellen asked for short written features - approximately 500 words. Articles can include book reviews and tips.

Scholarship - Gail White

No applications

Workshops

Erin Taylor has volunteered to fill the 3rd Vice President Workshops position. Jacqueline Jacobson moved to accept her nomination. Vickie Raynes seconded the nomination. By a show of hands, Erin was elected.

Temari Ball Workshop

Lolly Buxton will be teaching the workshop after the meeting in September and October from 1-3 PM.

The workshop will cost $20 and will be limited to about 15 people.

Treats

August: Linda Stoker, Nancy Osborne, Kate Webb, Cyn McArdle, Leesa DUBY?

September: Erin Taylor, Debbie Buddish, Nancy Osborne

November: Ellen Janssen, Nancy Osborne

Janet Meddings

Website: 100 new people looked at the Guild's website in June.

Karen Neal is currently receiving radiation treatment for cerebral cancer. Cancer treatments will probably last for a year.

Rebecca Foote is still taking care of her husband and needs our prayers.

Study Groups - if you are with a Guild study group, please send basic information about the group to Janet so that it can be added to the Guild's website.

Joy Johnson? is looking for a card weaving mentor.

KAWS - Cindy Lessenden

KAWS will be held in September and is being hosted by the Topeka Guild. The theme this year is KAWS on the Kaw: The Fibers that Flow Through our Lives. Cindy has created a design for the Guild's table and is looking for fiber arts to be displayed on the table.

KAWS has a community project of making woven mats for the homeless using plastic shopping bags.