WEAVERS GUILD of GREATER KANSAS CITY

Hello, Let me know if the Newsletter and two attachments do not show up.

Presidents' Message from Lynette Beebe and Cynthia SmithHappy Holidays!

Please plan on attending our Holiday Party tDecember 14. There will be lots of people, good food, and tons of laughter. We will not be having a business meeting or show and tell this month.

Cynthia and I would like to thank all of the Guild members who have stepped up to help make our Guild so successful this past year. This includes members who bring treats, help with the library, are members of our study groups and sub groups, who volunteer for committees, are board members, who help set up and take down chairs and make sure we keep our wonderful space clean. We have found that our president positions are so much easier than expected and it and it is all because of your help, support and advisement. Thank you for all everything you do!

Have you paid your dues? Kirsten Kakolewski starts working on our Directory in January and we want to make sure you are included. Please go to our webpage this month, fill out the membership form and use the electronic paying system or print the form and mail it and your payment to Kate Webb.

Programs:December 14, 2023-Holiday Party

Our celebration begins at 10:00 a.m. These members volunteered to be hosts and bring place settings and table decorations for one table of six members: Janet Meddings, Jacqueline Jacobson, Diane Hinkley, Kirsten Kakolewski, and Nancy Osborne. There is a gift exchange for those members who want to participate. The policy is that anyone who brings a gift will receive a gift. The theme is the color red and a household handmade item. Everyone brings a pot luck food item to share. It's one of the few times we talk and have fun without any kind of agenda.

January 10, 2024-SWAP and SHOP

It's time to share our stash and treasures with each other. Come to buy, sell, or trade the items you no longer want. You are welcome to use Venmo, Square, Paypal but most members bring cash to spend.
